Sub:- Pension --Compassionate gratuity --Venkamma wife of late Thimmappa --Permanent peon Collector's Office Bellary and Ag. Peon Taluk Office Rayadrug --Grant of gratuity --report submitted.

Ref: Tahsildar Rayadrug Rc.1986/51 A1 dated 28.6.52.

Venkamma, the widow of late Thimmappa, permanent peon Collector's Office, Bellary and Ag. Peon Taluk Office, Rayadrug, has applied for the grant of compassionate gratuity. Her application was received in the Taluk Office, Rayadrug on 25.6.51. Her husband Thimmappa died of asthama on 13.4.51, when he had put in permanent service of 16 years as revenue peon in this district.

His pay at the time of his death was Rs.17/- and dearness allowance was Rs.18/- per mnsem. He has left behind him, his widow and two minor daughters aged 10 and 3 years respectively. There are no other relatives either on the side of the deceased or on the side of his Widow, who are in a position to support the family of the deceased. The applicant is eking her livelihood by cooly at Maddikera village of Kurnool District. She is reported to have incurred a considerable expenditure towards the medical charges of her deceased husband.

2. The Tahsildar, Rayadrug under whom the deceased served last, has recommended the grant of compassionate gratuity of Rs.200/- only to the widow not taking into consideration, the dearnes allowance that was being paid to the deceased peon.

According to G.O.No.498 Finance (Pension) Department dated 22nd August 1941 and as amended in G.O.No.600 Finance (Pension) Dept. dated 23d May 1951, gratuity not exceeding Rs.2400/- or twelve months pay plus the dearness allowance of a Government servant, which-ever is less can be given. The deceased peon was drawing a substantive pay of Rs.17/- and dearness allowance of Rs.18/- per month at the time of his death. The applicant is eligible for a compassionate gratuity of Rs.420/- (17 plus 18) x 12).

In the circumstances stated above, I request that the Government may be pleased to grant to Venkamma, the widow of the late Thimmappa, a gratuity of Rs.420/- and the amount may be ordered to be paid from the Sub Treasury at Pattikonda in Kurnool District, where the applicant is living at Maddikera village of Kurnool District.

Sir,

Sub:- Compassionate Gratuity- Rayadrug Taluk- Venkamma Widow of Thimmappa- Deceased peon Taluk Office Rayadrug- Proposals - Submitted.

Ref:- 1. Application dated 25-6-51 from Venkamma widow of late peon Thimmappa.
2. Letters L. Dis 7549/51 dated 10-5-52 from the Tahsildar Pattikonda.

One Venkamma, the widow of S. Thimmappa, late peon Taluk Office Rayadrug has applied for the grant of compassionate gratuity.

The following is the brief history of the case.

S. Thimmappa, joined service as peon, Taluk office, Bellary on 1-2-1933. He was confirmed as permanent peon Collector office Bellary from 1-5-35. He had put in a total permanent service of 16 years. He was suffering from asthma and died on 13-4-51. He has left behind his widow venkamma and two minor daughters aged 10 and 3 years respectively. The widow is now living at Maddikera independently by coolie. The two minor children are under her care and protection. She has no relatives who are in anossition and support her for eeking out her lively hood. Her uncle Narasappa who is the only relative is a retired Sub-Jail warder and is unable to protect the widow and her minor children as he does not get any pension.

The deceased has not insured his life in any of the insurance companies. He was also not a subscriber either to G.P.F., P.L.I. or to any benift fund. The widow has spent a sum of Rs.30/- towards purchase of medicines for the use of her husband during his sickness. She has enclosed a certificate issued by the Medical Officer to that effect. The parents of the widow are residing at Maddikera are too poor to eckout their own lively hood and are unable to extend any help to the widow and her minor children. They have no objection of the payment of gratuity to the widow of the deceased peon.

I submit that this is a pietiable case deserving help from the hands of the Government. I request that a sum of Rs. 200/- which is equal to twelve months pay of the deceased peon may be paid to Venkamma the widow of the deceaded peon S. Thimmappa. The widow is willing to receive payment from Sub-Treasury at Pattikonda in Kurnool District.

I submit herewith discriptive rolls in duplicate. Service Register of the diseased peon, the application of the widow dated 25-6-51 and the record of enquiry containing 20 pages are enclosed for favour of reference.
